MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Telephone Conversation with Lloyd Cutler,
21 September 1979 [redacted]

25X1

1. John McCone has accepted for next Monday. He will call the Agency and ask for a car to pick him up rather than rely on the White House. [redacted]

2. Mr. Cutler will try to get him a reservation at the Metropolitan Club or the Madison Hotel and will notify us of what arrangements have been made. [redacted] 25X1

3. Clifford, Linowitz, Packard and Bundy have all accepted. [redacted]

4. Hedley Donovan and Lloyd Cutler will come to the luncheon. Donovan will probably stay; Cutler will not after the luncheon. [redacted] 25X1

5. Mr. Cutler thought our outline for the briefings sounded good. [redacted]

6. He thought we should get across what the United States said to the Soviets and vice versa during the Cuban Missile Crisis with respect to ground units. [redacted]

7. He thought we should get across the points that I showed him today on why we think it is a training unit and why someone might think it is not a training unit. I told him those were going to be incorporated into my briefing. He agreed that was the best place to do it. [redacted] 25X1
